

For every question, for every moment, for every family, Cleo is there.

Cleo helps families better balance parenting, health, and work. Cleo directs parents to the best possible healthcare decisions, promotes healthy behaviors, and proactively supports families at critical moments in the parenting journey.

1:1 PERSONAL SUPPORT FROM A CLEO GUIDE

Cleo Guides are here to answer all your questions - big and small - and provide support to you at every step through your parenting journey. Communicate via message, phone, or video when it's convenient for you and invite a partner to get answers to your questions as a family.

RESOURCES FOR ALL OF YOUR PARENTING NEEDS

Cleo's extensive digital library, personalized tips, parenting classes, and more provide you access with what you need when you need it. Get answers to your questions, find resources, or learn more about topics like childcare, sleep, family dynamics, feeding, child development, and more.

A NETWORK OF SPECIALISTS AND EXPERTS

Cleo provides you with free access to parenting specialists like doulas, lactation consultants, sleep coaches, child development specialists, and more all through your Cleo Guide. Get personal support and action plans customized for you and your unique situation.
